Who we are

Who is providing this notice?

Brewer Federal Credit Union

What we do

How does Brewer Federal Credit Union protect my personal information?

To protect your personal information from unauthorized access and use, we use security measures that comply with federal law. These measures include computer safeguards and secured files and buildings. We restrict access to nonpublic information about you to persons who need to know that personal information to provide products or services to you.

How does Brewer Federal Credit Union collect my personal information?

We collect your personal information, for example, when you

- Open an account
- Apply for any credit union service
- Visit our website, provide us information on any online application or transaction, or information you send to us by email
- Use your credit or debit card or pay your bills
- Make deposits or withdrawals from your accounts

We also collect your personal information from others, such as credit bureaus or other companies.

Why can't I limit all sharing?

Federal law gives you the right to limit only

- Sharing for affiliates' everyday business purposes — information about your creditworthiness
- Affiliates from using your information to market to you
- Sharing for nonaffiliates to market to you

State laws and individual companies may give you additional rights to limit sharing.
