(i) Cash Advances. The finance charge on cash advances for a billing cycle is computed by applying the monthly periodic rate to the average daily balance, which is determined by dividing the sum of the erage daily balance, which is determined by dividing the sum of the daily balances during the billing cycle by the number of days in the cycle. Each daily balance is determined by adding to the previous balance for cash advances (the outstanding cash advance balance of your account tat the beginining of the billing sycle) any new cash advances received and subtracting any payments as excluding any unpaid finance charges.

Purchases. The finance charge on purchases for a billing cycle is computed by applying the monthly periodic rate to the average daily aalance of purchases, which is determined by dividing the sum of the daily balances of purchases during the billing cycle by the number of days in the cycle. Each daily balance of purchases is etermined by subtracting from the outstanding unpaid balance of purchases at the begining of the billing cycle any payments as eceived and credits as unpaid finance charges.
